The members of the state tubercu-lesis commission, Dr. George H. Sholes site as a dangerous one be-knight, Dr. Stephen J. Maher and John F. Gunshanan, met Monday in their office in the capited at Hartford, and decided to build the proposed New London county sanatorium on the Post Sholes site as a dangerous one because of sanitary condition. If the sentiment is real and not imaginary, the committee stated they withdrew the advocacy of the site. They thought however that the state would guard against making the watershed any more unsanitary than it is.

Concerning the state ownership of the whole farm of 150 acres, it was reported that it could be secured at small expense, which would insure the safety of the hospital watershed. In conclusion, they asked that if the
